

Ingrid Dinter

EFT MASTER TRAINER
SPEAKER COACH

Embracing Diversity - Your Key To Success

In today's global economy, multi-cultural and diverse teams and business relationships are the norm, not the exception.

A proactive, open minded approach to embracing diversity brings long term job satisfaction, excellerated leadership growth, prevents attrition and increases the bottom line. Your audience will be introduced to 5 simple steps to enhance:

- ➔ The ability to have an open, non-judgmental mind no matter who we are talking to
- ➔ The awareness of multi cultural and inner cultural differences and commonalities and how to work with them successfully
- ➔ The tools to createing successful, long term, win-win relationships.

Releasing Stress in a Multi Cultural, Changed World The Successful Inclusion of Veterans into the Workforce

What others are saying

Ingrid Dinter is one of my favorite presenters. Her ability to get our attendees to “think” and generate discussions within our meetings makes her a joy to work with.

A consummate professional, she consistently delivers programs with high impact and receives great evaluations from participants. I love the ways she brings new ideas on topics my members want to hear. I would highly recommend meeting planners take a look at this savvy speaker and hire her to impact your conference. You will be glad you did.

Debby Adair, Founder
In the Presence of Positive Women and Motivation A Thon

Clearly a hit with the crowd!” Michael Prager,
National Speakers Association

Why Choose Ingrid?

Ingrid Dinter is a professional speaker and consultant on diversity and inclusion with over 15 years of experience as a trainer and coach.

A German native, Ingrid has worked in diverse, international companies such as Sony and BENK GmbH, an international trade company. She was the director of a non government organization which organized humanitarian aid transports for war zones in Bosnia.

Ingrid's father, a POW in WWII, has shaped her passion for understanding and communicating military culture to civilians, and finding ways to successfully reintegrate Veterans into the workforce and civilian life.

She is a world renowned master trainer of “EFT-Emotional Freedom Techniques,” a cutting edge stress release tool which creates mental - emotional resilience to prevent burnout. Ingrid is a frequent interview partner on radio and TV, has co-authored several books and research studies on EFT and was featured in the documentary “Operation Emotional Freedom.”